

I feel that the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. As of April when we signed up for Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law we have gone from about 4 to 5 calls per week to two calls in the last seven months. We can now sit at our home and when the phone rings not worry if it is a solicitation or not. Thanks You Kenneth Taylor